

MAISON VEYRANDE

Les Heures Blanches

HAUTE COUTURE · AUTOMNE-HIVER 2026-2027

PARIS · 6 JUILLET 2026 · TRENTE ET UNE SILHOUETTES

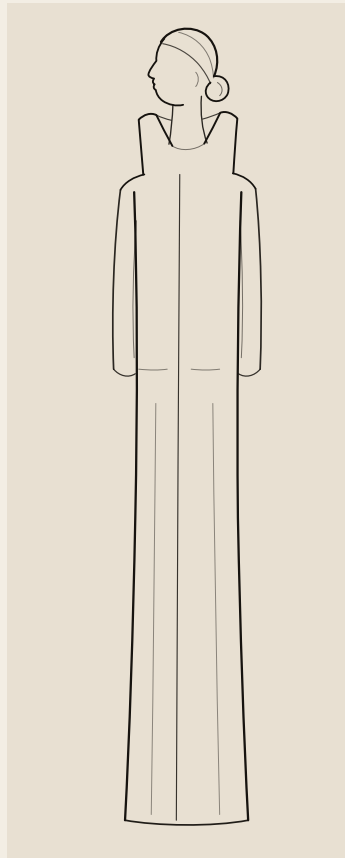

Between midnight and dawn, the atelier keeps its own hours.

For its Autumn–Winter 2026–2027 Haute Couture collection, Maison Veyrande returns to the hours the city never sees: the lamps of the atelier at the top of the house stay lit, and seventeen pairs of hands work in silence.

The palette is the atelier's own. Ivory duchesse satin and silk gazar, the colour of the toile before the first cut. Ink, for the sketch and for the night outside the window. Champagne, for the lamplight on the silk.

Thirty-one looks

SELECTED CROQUIS · I–V

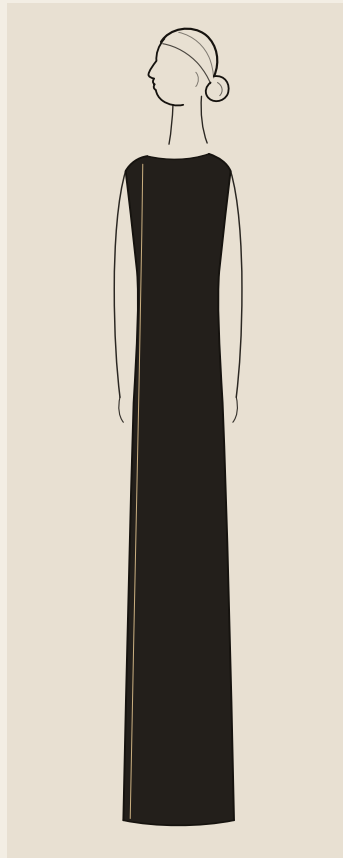

LOOK 01

MANTEAU DU SOIR

Ivory duchesse satin, high open collar, hand-rolled edges.

96 HOURS

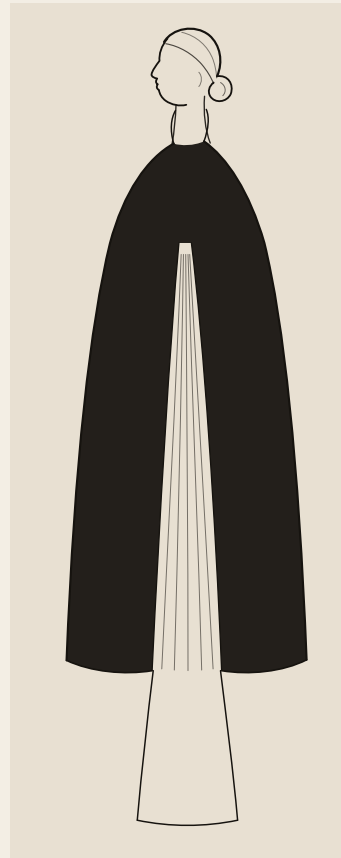

LOOK 07

ROBE COLONNE

Ink silk faille, one line of champagne thread from shoulder to hem.

140 HOURS

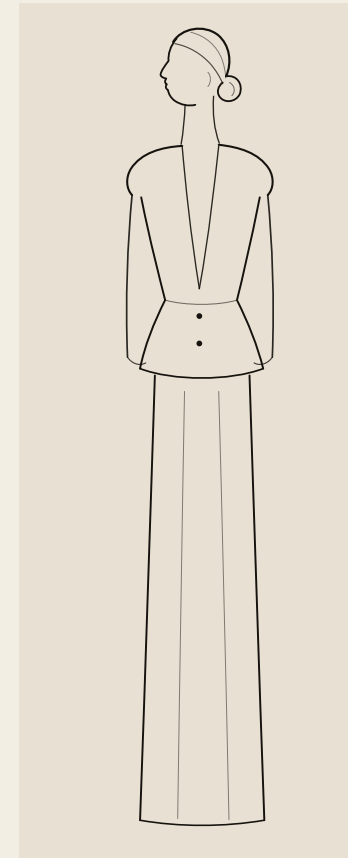

LOOK 12

CAPE DE MINUIT

Ink velvet, lined with pleated ivory organza.

210 HOURS

LOOK 19

TAILLEUR BLANC

Ivory wool and silk, sculpted shoulder, long gazar skirt.

120 HOURS

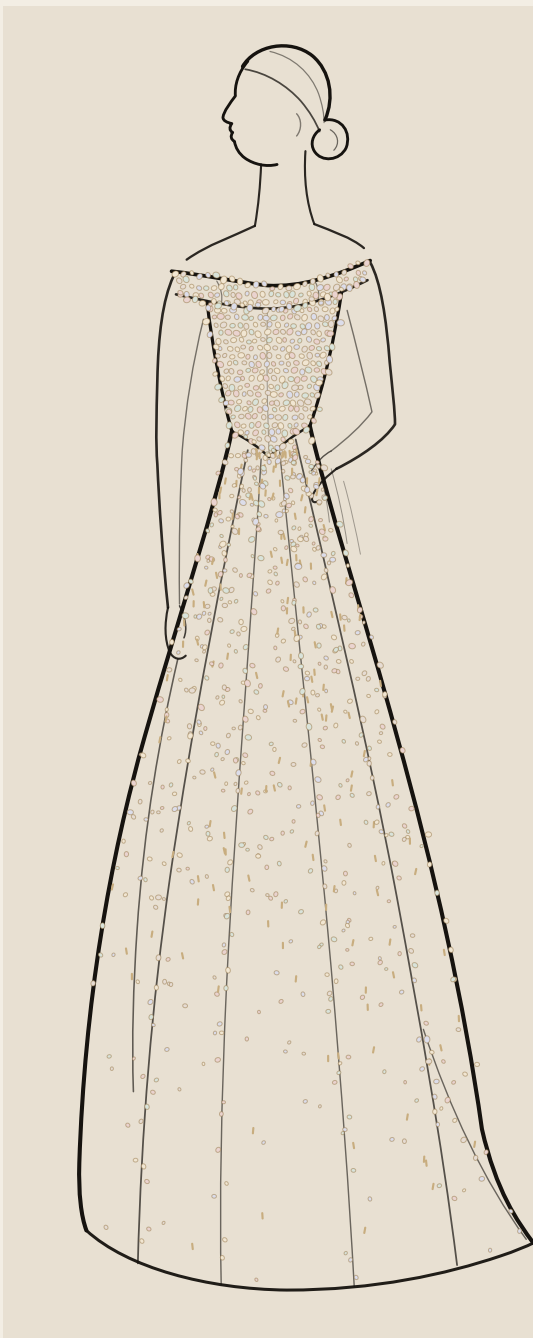

LOOK 31

LA DERNIÈRE HEURE

Ivory silk organza, mother-of-pearl sequins, champagne glass beads.

1,240 HOURS

LOOK 31 · LA DERNIÈRE HEURE

1,240

hours of hand embroidery

Ivory silk organza, embroidered by hand with mother-of-pearl sequins and champagne glass beads, by seventeen hands over eleven weeks. The embroidery follows the lines of the first sketch, stitch for stitch.

Couture is made in the white hours, when the city sleeps and the hands keep working.

ODILE SORRÈZE · CREATIVE DIRECTOR

MAISON VEYRANDE

Presented on 6 July 2026 in the grand salon of the Maison, Paris, to an original nocturne for piano and string quartet, performed live.

Maison Veyrande is a fictional couture house created for this example. All names, looks, dates and figures are invented.